Viggo Boats and New Partner Celebrate Strong Interest in Viggo C10 Offshore During Official US Market Debut at Newport Boat Show

Scandinavian-Built Aluminum Boats Make a Big Impression in the U.S.

September 16, 2024 — Newport, RI — Viggo Boats and Anywater Yachts are thrilled to announce the strong interest received for the Viggo C10 Offshore at the Newport International Boat Show. The boat's debut attracted significant attention from U.S. boating enthusiasts, with many recognizing its innovative design, high performance, and Scandinavian craftsmanship.

A Resounding Success

The C10 Offshore, built at Sweden's Öregrund shipyard, combines a lightweight aluminum hull with advanced features like a 24-degree v-bottom and centerline trim-tabs, enhancing performance in harsh offshore conditions.

"We're thrilled by the incredible response from the U.S. market," said Erik Wickgren, CEO of Viggo Boats. "The interest exceeded our expectations, confirming that our boats meet the demands of American boaters seeking both performance and quality."

Any Water Yachts: Viggo Boats Official Partner In The US

Owners Andrew Carleton and Brian Peterson of Anywater Yachts, based in Warren, RI, played a key role in showcasing the C10 Offshore to an enthusiastic audience. Their expertise in high-performance powerboats resonated with attendees, further establishing Anywater Yachts as a premier dealer in the region.
